

Twitter disclaimer for Christoph Sahar MD[edit] @saharc is largely a news service citing articles in the news media related to healthcare. A retweet does not constitute an endorsement. RTs which link to other websites are provided as a service to followers, but linking to the sites does not constitute endorsement of those sites by @saharc, and @saharc is not responsible for the content of external websites. Please note that other users of Twitter may utilize your tweets beyond the control of @saharc. Tweets are educational or informative items of interest and do not represent medical advice, see your doctor or healthcare provider. Tweets are only educational or informative items of interest only and are not meant to promote an unapproved or off label use of a medical drug or device. Quotes may have been said by others as well as anonymous individuals.

@saharc is not a professional health care provider, nor is it a suitable replacement for a licensed healthcare provider.

@saharc is intended to be an educational tool, not a tool for any form of healthcare delivery.

Below is @saharc's statement regarding liability, limitations, warranty, validity, guarantee, negligence, responsibility, damages, product liability, errors, omissions, indemnification, legal action, and contract (or lack thereof of any of the above).

@saharc is not a substitute for a licensed health care professional. @saharc is not intended to guide medical decision making, but is instead intended as an educational tool.

That is not to say that you will not find valuable and accurate educational information in @saharc's posts; some of the time you will. However, @saharc cannot guarantee the validity of the information found on Twitter. The content of any given article may recently have been changed, vandalized or altered by someone whose opinion does not correspond with the consensus in the medical field in your country, state, or city.

While @saharc strives to have the most up to date and accurate data, you agree to consult published medical literature or the package insert for official trial results, dosing information or instructions for use of pharmaceutical products and devices. Off label use of drugs and devices is not encouraged. Tweets by @saharc and links to articles of a forward looking investigational nature may present data to support the rationale for the use of a variety of pharmacologic agents and devices in both approved and non-approved indications. Actual prescribing information is by intent minimal or completely lacking. These tweets by @saharc and links to articles have been prepared for scientific educational purposes, and cannot be considered an inducement to use any drug or device in nonregistered indications. @saharc does not recommend the use of any drug or device in any manner inconsistent with that described in the full prescribing information.

In following @saharc, you assume responsibility for the accuracy of the information and its utilization. In following @saharc, you agree to hold @saharc free of responsibility and/or liability for potential damages or injury to persons or property as a matter of products liability, negligence, copyright infringement or otherwise from any use or operation of any methods, products, instructions or ideas contained in the material herein.

The views expressed by @saharc are those of @saharc and do not necessarily reflect the views of any organization. A tweet does not constitute a guarantee or endorsement of the organization of the quality or the value of the product or the claim made by the author or any manufacturer.
